

PLEA FOR JUSTICE

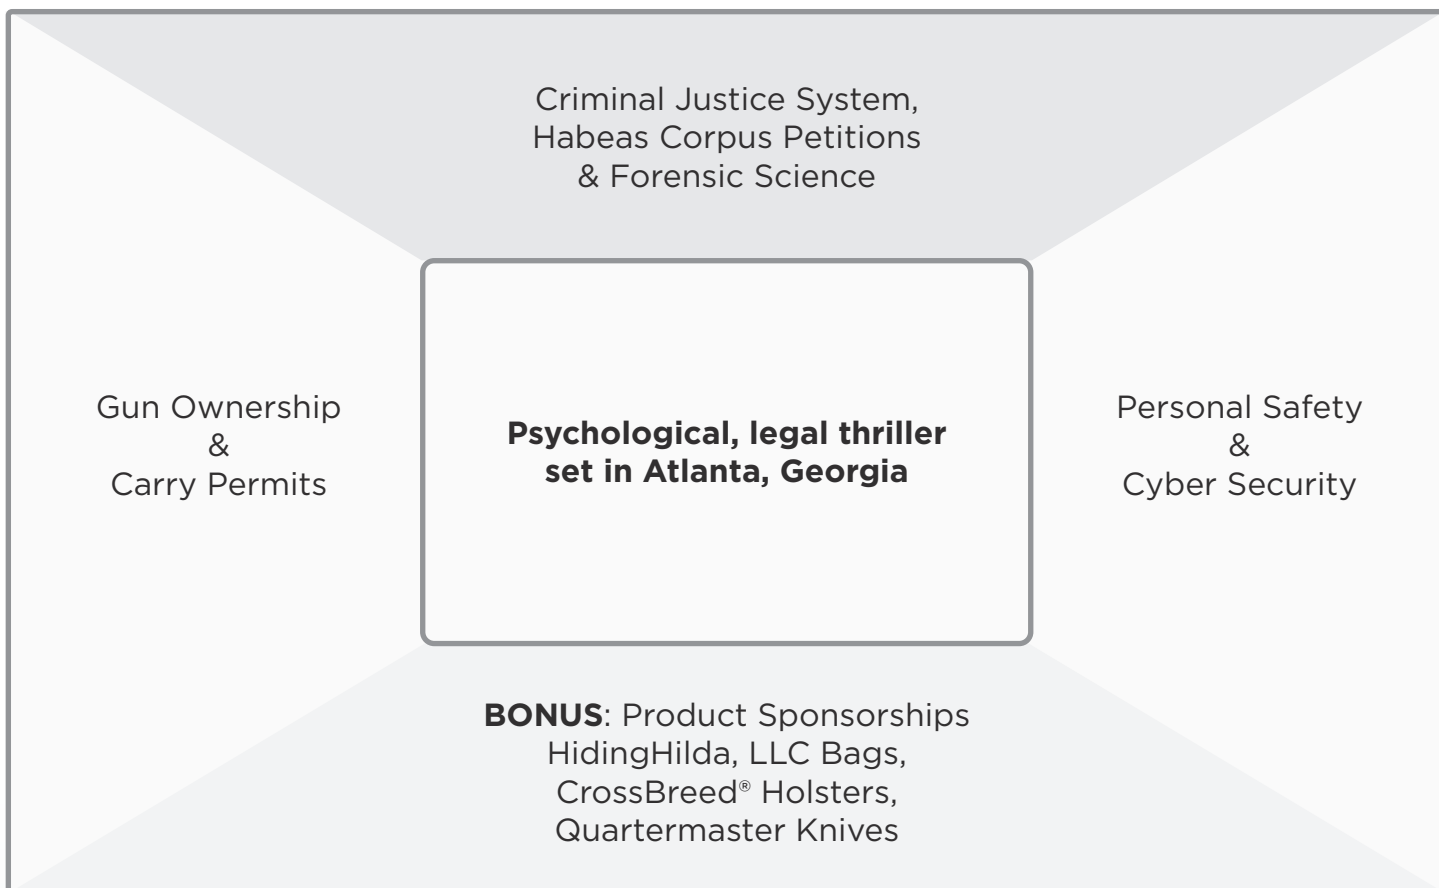

a novel BY LIZ LAZARUS

Talking Points

Aaron and Jackie were an odd pair in high school. He was the “cool jock” and she was the “introverted geek.” They were inseparable until graduation, when he suddenly dumped her with no explanation. Ten years later, Aaron reaches out to Jackie from prison after taking a plea deal for one of the most notorious murders in recent history. Labeled “The Snapchat Killer” by the media, he is accused of posting videos on social media of a college student before brutally murdering her.

Jackie, a paralegal, is drawn into the case and the opportunity to reconnect with her estranged friend, yet the conflicting evidence and bizarre clues leave her to wonder if she is helping an innocent man or being played for a fool. It wouldn't be the first time. In the end, whose plea for justice is answered?
